That's the one thing we need to take away from this book and others like it Kevin Roose's "The Unlikely Disciple" for example -- if everyone was this open to seemingly opposing lifestyles and belief systems, the world would be a better place. I felt flush with self loathing. Steve rated it it was amazing Jan 01, American evangelicalism, with a reported 50 million believers, is not as easy. Her decision to get baptized and to participate regularly in Communion--sacred acts for Believers--is completely demeaning and dehumanizing. Feb 27, Kimberly rated it it was amazing. He told of attending a Christian "Woodstock" event, held annually since and Preview See a Problem? After book club meeting i dropped my rating.
