Strict markets may only allow farmers to sell their own crops, or only accept produce picked within 24 hours of sale. Even if not, in these days of runaway claims it is wise to review basic Starting a Farmers Market policies. If you need a response, please locate the contact information elsewhere on this page or in the footer.

After you have determined the zoning laws and where it is legal for you to operate, will similar reasons affect a new market? Lastly, make sure that there are some seating areas for those who want to sit and chat, or just take in the ambiance.

Whom may sell in the market? Most important, they are fun!
