So enough for. Walters actually shows you who the bad guy is very early on when she writes from his perspective. You are commenting using your WordPress account. He is trying to get close to Ashley and Ashley is still getting over a fire that killed her parents when she was just 15 years old. A tortured soul to a certain extent. I had this book in my library for a long time. And I do mean, E. Ron wants to expose the truth, and he needs Ashley on his side, so he begins receiving strange messages that includes names of everyone involved on the night of the fire. I have to admit:
