I can't wait for the final book in the trilogy to find out what happens next for Sera, Kaelen and Zen. Will have to start book 3 ASAP! I have a feeling it will be messed up. So yes, it's a cliffhanger ending, beware! Her marking was revealed and they called her a witch and she was said to be burned after her obviously failed trial. I will never understand these type of plots. I hate books like this where the female main character is torn between two guys and she ends up having feelings for both of them and she kisses both. Will Sera remember anything? But I am glad I was wrong. All I was thinking was what a cheating whore, liar and skank.
