It was the cutest, this one has one of my favourite romantic tropes. I would really like in the future if authors would be more up front about these things.

Archived from the original on 16 December 2016. Alice is an asshole. The only thing I really will take from this novel is what I learned about asexuality. Then we can discuss how this novel also combats gross sexism. Retrieved 1 July

Having difficulties trying to decide what she really wants in her life, Alice writes a book about asexuality while embracing that you can be attracted romantically to people. Having difficulties trying to decide what she really wants in her life, Alice goes to see a councillor as a way of putting her thoughts out to see if someone really understands .
