This is a significant step away from the doctrine of the Jacobinic State, which has always tried to erase local identities. A must-see event for scientific and literary culture in the region of Toulouse, and since present in regional cities including Auch, Castres, Beaumont de Lomagne...

These forces fall within political and economic frame-works. Recognizing can be learnt from this research in terms of recognizing local practices and knowledge concerning the use of biodiversity? The institutional legacy of the colonial past forms a sort of matrix containing the contemporary forces that forge the political identities of the indigenous peoples of the Republic and their demands.
