Once upon a time, there was a storyteller who tried to honestly hold up a mirror leak in the face of a pitiful assembly of postmodernist, cool people posing as representatives of the long lost species of homo sapiens, satiated from overdosing fast food, fast reads, fast philosophy, fast bad chemicals, fast fashion, fast listening and fast wisdom - not to mention fast governing. And, of course, the book is filled with Vonnegut's humorous drawings and ability to return to an earlier observation in a way not unlike an incisive stand-up comedian.

Coincidentally, hewasthewriterofthebookI'djustfinishedreading. Apr 1 Perhaps jokes about open beavers are fu I have a little inner book snob that desperately wants to like Vonnegut. So that is my opinion on the qualities of this novel. Nothing is sacred in Breakfast of Champions. Herewastheplot: It was time I went. Jul 20, Lyn rated it really liked it.
