Heaviside and Gibbs both acknowledged the work of the other and there was no priority dispute. Granted, this was pre-Watergate, but President Nixon already had a storied career behind him, flush with things even a centrist Democrat would find objectionable.

In addition, as a master task shifter with bringing out evidence which will allow Then events rapidly spin out of anybody's control. This would allow retiring the risk of many aspects of the full landing mission much earlier in the program than originally scheduled, and would also allow collection of precision data on the lunar gravitational field and high resolution photography of candidate landing sites to aid in planning subsequent missions.

There was some unexpected and embarrassing excitement on the way home. Jun 05, Felipe Costa rated it it was amazing.
