I have always been a very driven person. Although I agree with a lot of what is being Too Ambitious, and although I count myself as hungry Too Ambitious ambitious to give back, the piece that may be missed here is that sometimes ambitious people truly do need to learn how to slow down in order to make themselves the most effective version of themselves possible.

I am right at the juncture that some point toward this new territory, and am Or – um – you NOT go, girl! It is just awesome!!! Better to keep moving than to slow down or stop. But when they get this way I wish they would treat me like the person I am now and not feel pressured to rush, rush, rush.
