She can heed his warning and stay clear of his people's problems or she can ferret out the lies and unravel an ancient tale of murder and deceit. They are secluded in this place ironically called Eden, and the main male character, Turen, goes after one of the former Guardians, Xavier, who pretty much lost his mind when his wife and child died.

Partagez votre opinion avec les autres clients. I think that the Tucson scene could have been eliminated and instead, used the event when Turen found out about the scorch marks in the garage. It's a nail biter that captured my attention from the very. As always I would like to thank R2R for allowing me to participate and read for a review:

And all of this is supported by secondary characters, and subplots that enhance me, I felt that it really should have been explained, because it is their main duty and why they were created in the first place. Guardians have special powers and were made to do something related to souls.
