You see, because although he was rather boring, he was terribly good at maths, Wilde Island is the place where six hundred years before her ancestress was exiled to, and where 20 queens since then have ruled. The story of Princess Meg and mage-in-training Calen who discover a wicked plot to kill members of the royal family and prolong a war between theirs and a neighboring kingdom. The kingdom loves and adores her and she loves them. The book is really split into three different parts.
