Instead of handing in her notice as any self-respecting woman would and going to work in a more positive environment, Emma desperately seeks to move up the ladder so she can impress her intolerably stupid family who make fun of her because she isn't a CEO yet she's only 25 by doing what's expected of her in her marketing assistant role and then pleading with her boss to promote her after one year even though she hasn't a clue in hell what she's doing. Emma works for an intolerably stupid company Panther Cola and reports Can You Keep A Secret? tiny men with big egos that speak to her as though she is the biggest inconvenience in their day my favourite lines are "Emma, please get your arse in gear" and "Emma, please get the fuck out of my office".
