The EU therefore should provide training, advice, non-lethal equipment and other resources to select African militaries but it must be aware of the political dynamics of national security forces in each context. Hide Footnote But the EU is often too eager to dispense funds in response to AU requests without sufficiently thinking about results. The notion, while remaining an aspiration, should be de-emphasised and replaced with a more pragmatic understanding of AU and EU mutual interests and the interdependent nature of their relations. The deadly 31 December crackdown on protesters demonstrates that political The AU claims to want this. Does it have the tools, budget compliance to take hold of it? Fundingshouldbedirectedtowardidentifyingdangerouspoliticaldynamic serious problems with water distribution and population growth will put greater pressure on the need to modernise subsistence agriculture, while climate change effects will aggravate the problems:
