But the solution is the same for each question. To forgive is to set a prisoner free and discover that the prisoner was you. The Three Phases The International Day of Forgiveness involves representatives of entertainment, culture and politics who share the celebration of common values.

The prayer is very simple, it consists of saying these words, "I'm sorry, I love you." Community support and enthusiasm has been overwhelming and we look forward to an exciting time of personal reflection, restored relationships, and inner healing. This all begs the question, "What is the answer? Our world is full of unresolved conflicts:

Making mistakes is part of our human journey, forgiveness allows us to deal with, and then look past all the hurt and consequences of the offense. The prayer is very simple, it consists of saying these words, "I'm sorry, I love you, please forgive me, I thank you."
